Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from France, and two from Flanders.

Rome, February 29.

E arrested, not along ago here, a Person, who for some Time made a great Noise throughout Italy. He assumed the Title of Don James Stuart, pretended to be Son to King James II. had a considerable Retinue, and found Ways and Means to get considerable Sums of Money from ignorant and unwary People. He has been strictly examined, and the whole Scene of his Imposture detected; by which it appears, that he is a Native of the Kingdom of Naples, by Profession a Sharper, as were all his pretended Servants. He had abundance of forg'd Letters from England, and a Seal with the Arms of Great Britain, with a remarkable Mistake in it. He was wont to wear a Blue Ribband, with a Medal representing a George; but upon close Inspection, it proved to be a Coronation Medal of Pope Innocent XI. He is banished the Ecclesiastical State as an Impostor, deprived of his forg'd Seal, Letters and Medal, and his Domestieks have undergone Corporal Punishment; so that, it is thought, there is an End of this Scene of Fourberie.

Madrid, March 10. The Governor of Alicant has communicated to their Majesties, by a Letter dated the 4th, th Account, that in the Afternoon of that Day M. de Court had detach'd a Frigate to go and find the Vessel of the Admiral Don John Navarro, and to escort her to the first Port, where she might be safely carried, and refitted. The Governor adds, that as the Weather had been since pretty calm, he conjectured that both Vessels were got either into Carthagena or Cadiz; and as there are sufficient Magazines in both Ports, for furnishing the Admiral with whatever he may have Occasion for, he does not at all doubt, that he will be very soon in a Condition to put to Sea.

Vienna, March 13. This Court seems to be extremely well pleased with the Respect paid to the Archduchess and Prince Charles of Lorrain, by their Polish Majesties; who presented his Highness with a Sword worth 50,000 Crowns, and the Archduchess with a Sett of China worth 6000. His Prussian Majesty also caused him to be treated with all possible Marks of Respect in all the Places of his Dominions thro' which they pass'd. The Ministry have approved a Scheme which will very soon convert the Militia in Bavaria, Bohemia, and Moravia, into Regular Troops. It consists in giving them Officers, who, thro' Age or Infirmities, are not altogether fit for Action, and who have their Pay allow'd them, for disciplining these new-rais'd Corps.

Hunninguen, March 17. Notice has been given to the City of Basle, on the Part of the King, that if they do not order an Austrian Officer, who has taken up his Lodgings at the new Inn, in order to observe the Motions of our Troops, to retire immediately, his Majesty will be obliged to order Little Hunninguen to be bombarded. The Magistrates of the City of Basle immediately, upon this, sent a Deputation to the Marquis de Prie, the Queen of Hungary's Minister to the Helvetick Body, to acquaint him with this. His Excellency thereupon told the Deputies, that if the French Officer who was in that City to watch the Motions of the Austrian Troops had Orders to withdraw, he would acquaint the Queen, his Mistress, with their Request; and then, he did not doubt, but her Hungarian Majesty would order the Person before-mentioned, to quit his present Quarters. The Magistrates have likewise sent a Deputation to M. Coigny, in order to make the necessary Representations on the same Subject; and, at their Request, the laudable Helvetick Body have sent two of their Members to Basle, to co-operate with their Majesties in their Endeavours to prevent this Mischief.

The SPEECH of His Excellency the Hon. GEORGE CLINTON, Captain-General and Governor in Chief of the Province of New-York, and Territories thereon depending in America, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c. To the General Assembly of that Province, met at New-York, the 27th Day of September, 1743.

Gentlemen,

AS his Sacred Majesty has been graciously pleased to constitute me Captain-General and Governor in Chief of this his Loyal Province, it is no small Pleasure to me, that I have this early Opportunity of declaring, That I am come with a sincere Intention to make the Prosperity of the Colony the chief Care and Study of my Administration; in Imitation of my Royal Master, who places his greatest Glory in the Happiness of his People.

And as I am informed, it has been the general Practice to have a new Election of an Assembly upon the Publication of new Commissions to Governors, and that the Continuance of that Practice will be agreeable to the People of this Province.

I do therefore, with the Advice of his Majesty's Council, and by Virtue of the Power and Authority given to me by his Majesty's Letters Patent, under the Broad Seal of Great-Britain, dissolve the present General Assembly; and the said Assembly is dissolved accordingly.

GEORGE CLINTON.

WRITS having been issued, for electing Members to serve in a New General Assembly, returnable the 8th Day of November, His Excellency made the following SPEECH to them.

Gentlemen,

IT would have been very agreeable to me to have embarked for my Government, soon after his Majesty was graciously pleased to honour me with his Royal Commission; but the Affairs of this Province, as well as my own, rendered that impracticable.

I am now come amongst you, Gentlemen, with such favourable Impressions of the People you represent, that it shall be my chief Study, by every proper Method, to deserve your good Will; and to merit your Esteem, as it shall be my constant Endeavour to discharge the Trust reposed in me, by a steady Adherence to the Principles of Justice, and a due Regard to the established Rights and Privileges of the People, consisting with the known Prerogative of the Crown; and I am persuaded, from your Loyalty to his Majesty, whose paternal Affection extends to the remotest of his Subjects, and his glorious Zeal, in maintaining the Liberties of Europe, have justly rendered him the Darling of his own People, and gained him the Immortal Title of the Deliverer of other; and likewise, from your wonted Regard to the Honour and Reputation of the Province, that you will not fail of answering his Royal Expectations, and my reasonable Hopes, in granting a Revenue for the Support of his Government, in as ample a Manner, and for a Term as long as has heretofore usually been given under any of my Predecessors, Governors in Chief of this Province.

The short Time I have been with you, has not permitted me minutely to examine into the State of your Fortifications; the Security and well Maintaining of which, has, since my Arrival, been strongly recommended to me by his Majesty; and I cannot doubt, but the present critical Juncture of the Affairs of Europe, will induce you to exert your utmost Care in Points of so great and general Importance. And as you are indebted to the bountiful Care of his Majesty for a large Supply of Warlike Stores, it will be incumbent upon you, to show your Thankfulness, by making immediate Provision for the Purchase of such others, as, in the Judgment of our Superiors, ought to be had, at the proper Charge and Expence of the Province.

I understand, and am thoroughly convinced, of the great Consequence it is to the British Interest on this Continent in general, as well as to this Province in particular, to secure the Friendship and Dependance of the Six Nations of Indians, and to cement, if possible, into a firm Union with each other, all those who are in Alliance with any other of his Majesty's Provinces; you will therefore find me heartily disposed, with your Assistance, to put my Intentions, on this Head, in Execution, as soon as the Season for a general Treaty will permit.

The Opinion I entertain of his Majesty's Subjects in this Province, forbids me to think they will suffer the usual Place of their Governor's Residence to lie longer in the Ruins to which the late unhappy Fire has reduced it. I cannot but sensibly feel the Inconveniencies that, from hence, arise to me and my Family. If therefore some Regard to them, joined to that which the Dignity of the Government requires at your Hands, can prevail on you to take this Matter into your immediate Consideration, it will redound very much to your Honour, and my Ease.

Having taken Notice, before my Departure from England, that this Province, contrary to the Customs of most others in America, is intirely unprovided with any Agents for negociating the Publick Affairs of the Colony at the Court of Great Britain, I cannot, on this Occasion, omit mentioning to you the Necessity there is of an Appointment of some proper Persons for this End, and of establishing such a reasonable Allowance for their Service, as may induce them to exert themselves with Vigilance and Care, in whatever may contribute to the Welfare, or affect the Publick Interest of the Province.

I desire you, Gentlemen, to be assured, nothing in my Power shall be wanting to demonstrate my real Regard and Attachment to the Interest of this Colony; I will endeavour to convince you of the Sincerity of my Intentions, by the Uprightness of my Actions; and shall always be well pleased with my Administration, when I know it stands approved by the General Voice of the People.

GEORGE CLINTON.

HARLEIAN MISCELLANY:

OR, A

COLLECTION

OF

Scarce, Curious, and Entertaining TRACTS and PAMPHLETS found in the late Earl of OXFORD's LIBRARY. Interspersed with Historical, Political, and Critical Notes.

CONDITIONS.

I. It is proposed to publish six Sheets of this Work at the Price of One Shilling, every Saturday, on the same Letter and Paper as the Proposals.

II. No Money is required till the Delivery of each Number.

III. It is desired, for ascertaining the Number to be printed, and the more speedy Delivery of each Number, that they who think the Design worthy of their Encouragement, would favour the Proprietor, T. Osborne, of Gray's-Inn, Bookseller, with their Names, and Places of Abode, as they may be printed.

IV. The first Number will be published on Saturday the 24th of March, 1743-4, and the following Numbers regularly every Saturday Morning.

Proposals at large, with an Account of this Undertaking, may be had of all Booksellers both in Town and Country; and of Jacob Robinson, Publisher, in Ludgate-street, where Subscriptions are taken in.

An Account of this UNDERTAKING.

IT has been for a long Time, a very just Complaint, among the Learned, that a Multitude of valuable Productions, published in small Pamphlets, or in single Sheets, are, in a short Time, too often, by Accident, or Negligence, destroyed and intirely lost; and that those Authors, whose Reverence for the Publick has hindered them from swelling their Works with Repetitions, or encumbering them with Superfluities, and who, therefore, deserve the Praise and Gratitude of Posterity, are forgotten, for the very Reason for which they might expect to be remembred. It has been long lamented, that the Duration of the Monuments of Genius and Study, as well as of Wealth and Power, depends in no small Measure on their Bulk; and that Volumes, considerable only for their Size, are handed down from one Age to another, when compendious Treatises, of far greater Importance, are suffered to perish; as the compactest Bodies sink into the Water, while those, of which the Extension bears a greater Proportion to the Weight, flote upon the Surface.

This Observation hath been so often confirmed by Experience, that, in the Neighbouring Nation, the common Appellation of small Performances is derived from this unfortunate Circumstance; a flying Sheet, or a fugitive Piece, are the Terms by which they are distinguished, and distinguished with too great Propriety, as they are subject, after having amused Mankind for a While, to take their Flight, and disappear for ever.

What are the Losses which the Learned have already sustained, by having neglected to fix those Fugitives in some certain Residence, it is not easy to say; but there is no Doubt that many valuable Observations have been repeated, because they were not preserved; and that, therefore, the Progress of Knowledge has been retarded, by the Necessity of doing what had been already done, but was done for those who forgot their Benefactor.

The obvious Method of preventing these Losses, of preserving to every Man the Reputation he has merited by long Assiduity, is to unite these scattered Pieces into Volumes, that those, which are too small to preserve themselves, may be secured by their Combination with others; to consolidate these Atoms of Learning into Systems, to collect these disunited Rays, that their Light and their Fire may become perceptible.

Of encouraging this useful Design, the Studious and Inquisitive have now an Opportunity, which, perhaps, was never offered them before, and which, if it should now be lost, there is not any Probability that they will ever recover. They may now conceive themselves in Possession of the Lake into which all those Rivulets of Science have for many Years been flowing; but which, unless its Waters are turned into proper Channels, will soon burst its Banks, or be dispersed in imperceptible Exhalations.

Place; Productions of the Writers of all Parties, and of every Age from the Reformation; collected with an unbounded and unwearied Curiosity, without Exclusion of any Subject.

So great is the Variety, that it has been no small Labour to peruse the Titles, in order to reduce them to a rude Division, and range their Heaps under General Heads; of which the Numbers, though not yet encreased by the Subdivision which an accurate Survey will necessarily produce, is such, as if they could be conveniently published, would excite the Curiosity of all the Studious, as there is scarcely any Part of Knowledge, which some of those Articles do not comprehend.

As many of these Tracts must be obscure by Length of Time, or defective for Want of those Discoveries which have been made since they were written, there will be sometimes added Historical, Explanatory, or Supplemental Notes, in which the Occasion of the Treatise will be shewn, or an Account given of the Author; Allusions to forgotten Facts will be illustrated, or the Subject farther elucidated from other Writers.

N. B. The Second Sale of the Harleian Library still continues to be sold at T. Osborne's Shop in Gray's Inn, and will hold on till the Publick is advertis'd of its Conclusion. Any Gentleman or Lady may have the Use of the Catalogue for three Months, upon depositing of Ten Shillings; and upon Return of the Catalogue, the Money shall be returned.

The late vigorous Attempts of the Emissaries of Rome, to diffuse their poisonous Tenets among a free and Protestant People, and that under the happy Government of an illustrious Protestant Prince, must raise in every sober and generous Mind a just Indignation against them, and a tender Compassion to the Weak and Ignorant, who are most exposed to their horrid Delusions. Surely, never did any Thing, that wore the sacred Name of Religion, appear in the World, so monstrously absurd and detestable as Popery, which is the cruellest Merchandise of Men's Lives and Souls, and lies in direct Contradiction to Reason and Revelation, to Morality and Common Sense, and to all the dearest Interests of Civil Society, of Liberty, Conscience, and Eternal Salvation.

A Pamphlet hath been twice published within this Fortnight, call'd, A Present for an Apprentice; which, by the Account of its unpromising Title, I don't question but many others as well as myself, have overlook'd. Seemingly calculated for low and unexperienced Life, it excited no Curiosity in those above that Level. 'Twas therefore, with not a little Surprize, that, on dipping into it, I found such a System of Morality and Oeconomy as Persons of all Ranks might improve by, delivered in such a Style, as the most accomplish'd Readers might be delighted with: In short, a Work, which, if universally known, would be an universal Good, as containing all the Requisites to render Mankind honest, wise, sociable, and virtuous.

Dr. FREIND's Specifick Powder for the GREEN-SICKNESS:

BEING an excellent Chemical Preparation, which soon removes all Symptoms of that Distemper, Loss of Appetite, Shortness of Breath, Pain and Beating of the Head and Heart, Sinking of the Spirits, Laziness or Weariness without having labour'd, Difficultation to Exercise, &c. It destroys all Viscidities of the Blood, opens all Obstructions, and quickly changes a pale livid Countenance into a florid beautiful Complexion. This Medicine is not unpleasant to take, of a grateful Smell, and of so safe a Nature, that it may be given to a Child of three or four Years old. It excites neither Vomiting nor Purging; but effects a Cure by operating upon the Blood and Juices.

Sold by the Gentlewoman at the Potter's-Shop facing the Church Passage in Salisbury court Fleet street, at 2s. 6d. the Bottle. Good Allowance is made to such as take a Quantity.

Where is likewise sold, 7 s. 6 d. the Bottle,

BOERHAAVE's Chemical Elixir:

Being

A real SPECIFICK for Curing the WHITES in Women:

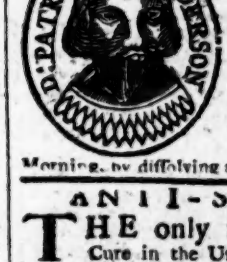
AS the immediate Cause of this Melancholy Disorder is, a Weakness of the Fibres and Vessels of the Womb, and a retarded Circulation of the Blood thro' its Vessels; this Medicine wonderfully strengthens those Fibres and Vessels, and gently increases that necessary Circulation of the Blood thro' them. It strengthens the STOMACH, and amends the Solids and Fluids; a depraved State of which is another Cause of the worst Kind of this Disorder. Hereby it restores decay'd NATURE, causes CONCEPTION, and prevents MISCARRIAGES. It removes Pains and Weakness of the Back, and those pricking Pains often felt in the Privy Parts, and all other Symptoms of this Disorder.

Where may also be had, [Price One Shilling a Box.]

Newly arriv'd from EDINBURGH,

Dr. ANDERSON's LOZENGES,

Practised many Years there with very great Success.



THEY perfectly cure all Coughs, Colds, Wheezings, Ticklings in the Throat, Stoppings and Pains in the Breast, the Chincough in Children, and Shortness of Breath in Persons of any Age; strengthen the Lungs, and prevent Consumptions; presently loose Defluxions, stop the Cough, and make the Patient sleep quietly. They may be taken frequently, but especially Evening and Morning, by dissolving a few of them in the Mouth.

ANTI-SYPHILICON.

THE only short and most infallible Cure in the Universe for the VENEREAL DISEASE, from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant VIRUS, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd CLAPS, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relics on one Hand, or a seminal Gleet or Weakness to linger on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the French Pox, attended with Nocturnal Pains, universal Breakings out, and all the other most exasperated Symptoms, are soon overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely cured than by Salivation, Inungation, or any other Method whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as justly to bespeak it the only apposite Remedy or true Venereal Antidote in the World; and this some Thousands have found their great Joy experience'd.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Disease, nor requires Confinement; but may be taken, and the Cure be accomplish'd, without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury, may by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and most effectual Manner.

All such likewise as doubt they have some remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may by a few Doses of it intirely free themselves from all Suspicion of that Kind; for it admits of no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and on this Account, in all scorbutick, scrophulous, and even leprous Eruptions or Foulnesses of the Skin, Glandulous Swellings and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose than any other Medicine yet known can by ten.

The Price of this most Noble ANTI-SYPHILICON is but Six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. RAMSAY's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up with a Book of Instructions, by the Perusal of which, all Persons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease, may perfectly understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is entirely rooted out of their Bodies

Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Secret.
